Tory MP will open charity's new base

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley will be at the opening of a new charity base tomorrow (Friday).

Conservative MP Mr Burley will officially open the Dog AID (Assistance in Disability) base in the CVS Buildings, Arthur Street, Chadsmoor at 2.30pm.

It will be the new head office of a national charity that helps disabled people to train their pet dogs to assist them.

Up until the start of this year all administration had been dealt with by volunteers from their own homes across the UK.

Secretary Erica Bennett said: "As the charity is continuing to grow it was deemed to be necessary to find an office base from which to work.

Perfect

"Several places were viewed but all were too expensive but then we found just the right place—a small office in the CVS Building. Just perfect for our needs," she added. Erica said training, which could take up to two years to compete, was designed to meet the needs of disabled people with an instructor advising how the dog could be best utilised.

The charity is also hoping the opening of the office will help the charity to recruit more supporters and fundraisers.

Talks on pay held in secret

A MOVE that could cut the pay of Cannock Chase Council's chief executive as well as nine other officers has been discussed in secret by the authority's ruling cabinet.

The Labour Party, which came to power in May, discussed the implications of such a move last Friday night (July 8) but is waiting on the pay adjustment and staff structure review committee to report back. The body was established three weeks ago.

As well as the post of chief executive, one director and eight heads of service would also be affected by any decision to cut pay.

Deputy council leader Councillor Janos Toth, chairman of the pay adjustment and staff structure review committee, said one option was to consult the public on what they felt was the right way for the council to make savings.

"One option may include opening up a consultation to ask residents of Cannock Chase what they think," he said. "They are the ones paying the officers.

Its creation is all down to the hard work of two members of staff who wanted to do something for the residents.

Activities co-ordinator Marian Preece, who is due to retire next year, decided she wanted to create the garden as a lasting retirement gift for the residents.

With fellow activities co-ordinator Lyn Newell, the pair set about transforming the outdoor space into the sensory garden.

The pair, who work with residents with dementia in the home's Ullswater and Loweswater units, have held a series of events including a sponsored wheelchair push to raise £5,000 over the past two years towards the project.

They have also been helped by the project.

'Tweak' missed the point

Re: Chronicle letters, July 7.
When an article or letter is submitted to a newspaper, it is appreciated that the written material may be subject to a reduction in the amount of words used, a tweak here and there, to enable a fit on the page.

That said, it is reasonably likely that the author of the 'tweaking' knows not a great deal about the subject matter of the material s/he is trimming. The result can mean the impact of the origresult can mean the impact of the original article is either negated completely or its relevance is reduced to zero, as was the case in a letter submitted here last week. The essence of the message was lost.

The most embarrassing element is that the editors then add the original author's name to the picked over revamp, complete with misinterpretabad.

It would be useful, helpful even, if editors were to send an email to the letter writers asking them to trim down the words if they're too long, giving a deadline to reply or to forego inclusion that week, if they don't respond. This would be preferable to them rewriting the article and losing the noint.

charity based in Cannock has had a bid for £2,700 in rate relief on one of its shops rejected.

The Newlife Foundation, is based in Hawks Green, but also has a shop in Walkmill Lane, Bridgtown.

Like all charities, it receives a mandatory 80 per cent rate relief on its premises, amounting to £30,000. But organisations also apply for a further top-up payment at the discretion of the council.

Newlife has been applying for more council help with its rent rates for 10 years and staff said the decision by Cannock District Council was "disappointing".

In a report, the council says it would be "inappropriate" to give such a large amount to one charity. It is the latest blow for Newlife, which estimated it will lose £5,500 this year following the increase in VAT.

The charity has fought in vain for 10 consecutive years to get rate relief on its Hemlock Way headquarters but keeps applying every year.

A report to Cannock District Council by financial officers says: "The bid has been continually refused on the grounds that it was inappropriate for one charity to receive such a disproportionate percentage of the overall budget." disproportionate percentage of the overall budget."

Demand

Demand

Newlife says every pound it has to pay in rates means less money for equipment for disabled children.

Sheila Brown OBE, the charity's CEO, said:
"We regret that the council has once again decided it is not possible to support Newlife when the charity itself is supporting so many disabled children and their families throughout the Cannock area.

"This latest – but not unexpected – decision comes at a time of increasing demand on Newlife resources due to statutory cutbacks."
Newlife, the leading UK children's disability charity, was last year awarded £1.2 million worth of grants for vital equipment such as wheelchairs, hoists, safe play spaces, beds, and sensory and communication aids to be bought for more than 15,500 disabled and terminally ill children.

The base recycles donated surplus stock from more than 400 retailers, selling it at discounted prices. Newlife Superstore is run by Newlife Trading, which submitted the rent relief bid.

Lanza artist leaves calling card at pub

Owners of Woody's Bar in Hednesford Tracey Walker and Andy Wood with the beermats, pictured inset

A MYSTERY artist who visits pubs across Staffordshire and the Black Country with drawings of opera singer Mario Lanza has struck again – this time in Hednesford. The mystery figure usually leaves a calling card, the same cartoon image of Lanza on beermats and always includes a fact or a quote. He has now left his mark at Woody's Music Bar, in Market Street.

Lanza, who died in 1959, was an American tenor and Holly wo o d movie star of the late 1940s and

Some £188,000 will be required to pay for indoor and outdoor sports facilities in Norton Canes and Heath Hayes, and a further £50,000 towards improvements at the Burntwood signals and Five Ways roundabout.

Around 14 per cent of the homes need to be affordable for the scheme to have a chance of being approved.

Norton Canes parish council has objected, saying the development covers green belt land.

Education chiefs on Staffordshire County Council say there will be more demand for school places while Walsall Borough Council says the plan would "undermine the urban renaissance of the Black Country".

Among the issues raised by petitioners were loss of views and impact on property prices. Objectors also cite lack of doctors' facilities, but a report says a new health centre in Brownhills Road will cater for the new residents.

Mrs Wilman said: "It's upsetting to have to rely on people to do things for me. I can't even get myself dressed.
"I was in terrible shock when it happened.
"The roads should not have been allowed to get into that state."

The county council said it had invested an extra £6 million, along with the Government, on the roads.

and placed around the city for the festival's first ever pig parade. Each pig has been decorated by a different community group. 'Gaudi' was delivered to Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College in May. Art teacher Emma Cooper and a team of pupils from years seven and eight came up with ideas on how to decorate it. The pig is now covered with a mosaic made up of broken coloured glass bottles. It was named in honour of the famous Spanish architect. Copies of the Pig Parade Trail will be available from the festival office at the Lichfield Garrick. The festival ends on Sunday (July 17) and there will be an auction of the pigs in Cathedral Close at 1 pm.

Town's Lotto sales prove just the ticket

RUGELEY'S local Lottery scheme is making on average seven times more for the town than that of Cannock.

Angi Cooney, of the Rugeley Traders, said on average the lottery scheme brought in around £700 a month, compared with just £100 for Cannock. Now, the chairman of the Cannock Traders Association

Now, the chairman of the Cannock Traders Association has called on businesses and individuals in the town to back the Shop Local Lottery.

Natal Chapman, manager of Cannock Shopping Centre and chairman of the traders', said more people needed to get behind the scheme.

From the tickets sold, each month the winner is awarded $50\,\mathrm{per}\,\mathrm{cent}$  of the proceeds as their prize. Five per cent goes to lottery running costs and the final  $45\,\mathrm{per}\,\mathrm{cent}$  is used to fund future town centre events and promotions.

Ms Chapman said: "Sales are low and we do need more support from some retailers."

Canes High School at St James Church – and a special cake was made. Pupils took part in dramas, textile work, brass rubbing and other craft activities with local volun-rubbing and other crait activities with local volunteers.

Sylvia Merry, the school's head of Religious Education, organises the activity for Year 7 pupils with the aim of helping them understand the place of the church in the community.
"They also visit the bell tower, make tapestries, paint stained glass windows and meet Father Neil Hibbins and local parishioners who volunteer at the church," said school spokeswoman Yeonne Haynes.
"It's a lovely atmosphere. They bring a packed lunch and have a really lovely time," she added.

Info appeal on missing war medals

A HISTORY group is appealing for help to locate a war veteran who may have lost their medals.

Trevor McFarlane, chairman of the Cheslyn Hay and District Lace)

The Work McFainhe, thay and District Local History Society, has been handed four ribbons that were found more than 18 months ago in Littlewood Lane in the village.

They were discovered following the annual Remembrance Day parade in November 2009. Attempts to trace the owner have so far proved fruitless. Trevor believes the medals may have fallen off the ribbon, and the owner may not have been aware at the time that they were missing.

The medals were the 1398-45 Star, a Burma Star, 1939-45 Star, a Burma Star, a Defence Medal from 1939-45 and a 1939-45 War medal.

Education centre plan at sewer site

and education centre, funded by the Ministry of Justice, has been proposed in return for a 'superprison".

The development will include outside covered classrooms and play areas and has been earmarked for the 3.2-acre site sewer site at Hilton Marsh in South Staffordshire, near the new £150 million Featherstone 2 jail. The scheme has been drawn up by youth services group Gecko, but work cannot begin until Severn Trent agrees to transfer ownership of the site to South Staffordshire District Council.

Council.

Gecko wants to turn the site into an area in which the environment can be used to help train youngsters, with people in Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley among those to benefit.

It is hoped that training will give them skills to help when applying for environmental job opportunities. Gecko would manage the site and provide education, leisure and learning opportunities there 330 days a year. An adventure play area built from natural materials would be included.

Courses in areas including promoting confidence, leadership, perseverance, motivation and tolerance will be held and there are also plans for a viewing tower, community allotments and two ponds.

Stereophonics tribute act tops bill at Tackeroo

A STEREOPHONICS tribute act hits the stage in Hednesford tomorrow night (Friday) for a gig at The Tackeroo pub.
The four-piece group – Steresonics – hail from Leicester and have been around since 2000, mostly in their original guise of Replicathonics.

caphonics
Former Stereophonics drummer Stuart
Cable, who died last year, once joined the band on stage.

After taking a year off they have now returned with a new tour and a new name and will be on stage at The Tackeroo from 9pm, with tickets costing £6.

Also at The Tackeroo this weekend will be 70s glam rock tribute act Glamnation. Songs from the likes of T Rex, Etton John, Slade, The Osmonds, David Bowie, The Sweet, Alvin Stardust and Suzi Quatro will be on the set list as the band invites its audience to dance like it's 1972

Glamnation start at 9pm on Saturday (July

16) and tickets are £5.
For more information call the Bracken Close venue on 01543 423124.

Holmes' exploits recalled in show

THE LIFE and times of Sherlock Holmes and his trusted friend Dr Watson will be recalled in a show at the Lichfield Garrick this weekend.

As part of the 30th Lichfield Festival, The As part of the sour Element Fourtain, inc.
Singular Exploits of Sherlock Holmes takes place tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday from
8pm. The pair will recount their adventures

Friday 22, where several local bands will get the chance to prove if they are the next big thing. Rock-punk group Sunset on Suburbia will headline the event playing songs from their debut EP which was recently recorded in California. Thunderous rock band Storm in the Summer, Blink 182-influenced This City Lights, pop group Taking Haley, classic rockers Sabotage, meldolic Lichfield act Chloe and the Tomcats and new-comers Almost Easy complete the line up, with the free night getting under way at 6pm.

A free family fun day, organised by Burntwood

Entertainment for the afternoon includes juggling, magic, music, dancing, arts, crafts, bungee trampoline, hair braiding, temporary tattoos, inflatable world and a skateboard ramp.

On Saturday night comes the Burntwood Wakes Festival Proms, from 7.1510pm.

Soloist

Again entry is free and the Staffordshire Festival Orchestra has been booked to provide a traditional proms concert.

The orchestra is comprised of 48 musicians accompanied by conductor Frank Wadkin and soprano soloist Rachel Baggott, who is also head of music at Chase Terrace Technology College. A fireworks finale will close the concert, weather permitting, and visitors are invited to bring a picnic and a Union flag. The climax of revellers can hark back to go back five decades with the 60s Summer Festival.

The six-hour show features legendary hits from the era and a performance from Elvis Presley impersonator Chris Connor.

Fawlty Towers star Andrew Sachs appears in the hospital drama tonight, playing Mendel, who along with his wife Rachel (former EastEnders star Anita Dobson) runs a pharmacy. Unfortunately for the couple, they are being terrorised by a local heroin addict who is desperate for fixes. One day, when the addict comes into the chemist for methadone, Mendel stands up to him and is stabbed for his troubles. So, deciding enough is enough, Rachel adds a mysterious substance to the methadone, with unforeseen consequences. Meanwhile, Mads is still living in fear of her attacker, Ash, who has stepped up his threatening behaviour to another level. Can Lenny persuade problem with the green revolution occurring in the motoring world, it's that excitement and enthusiasm feature quite low on the priority list.

Honda's prototype puts zing into eco-motoring

Understandably, of course, head-Understandably, or course, ......line figures of carbon dioxide emissions and combined cycle By Matt Joy miles-per-gallon are what everyone is interested in. But if you happen to be a keen driver and a keen greenie too, compromise is your only option. That was until Honda introduced the CR-Z, the first proper attempt at building a hybrid sports car, and it does a fine job too considering that fuel efficiency and performance are almost multually exclusive. By Honda's feel than outright punch; the light-weight body of the CR-Z made it agile and fun while the brisk performance meant it could still hit over 50mpg.

Now Honda has had a go at pushing the CR-Z as far as it will go

thanks to the independent Mugen

Capable

R-Z.
Many of the parts on this one-off example are from the Mugen shelf - the uprated suspension is near race-specification, as are the mighty brakes and delicious forged alloy wheels.

It also receives a

It also receives a major visual fillip with a Mugen-design body kit, with a deeper front bumper, side skirts and a huge rear wing which looks much better in the flesh than you might think. Get on the phone or the internet and you could have your standard CR-Z converted to this specification for around £8,000.

But the real hard work has been done in the engine room.

By adding a supercharger to the 1.5-litre petrol motor Mugen has boosted the power output by over 60 per cent to 197bhp while the already generous torque figure is up by 23 per cent to 215lb.ft.

Those are good figures for a hot hatch, but the Mugen CR-Z weighs a slight 1,080kg.

Once installed in the close-fitting bucket seats, firing up the CR-Z brings a racing car-like resp from the exhaust – something which would certainly be toned down a little in a production version.

Just like the standard car there are three driving modes, but the Sport mode is replaced with Mugen mode and brings with it full access to the extra power.

extra power.

However, set off in Eco mode and aside from the much stiffer suspension and hilariously unruly racket which comes from the exhaust, there's very little to distinguish it from the regular car.
It will potter along happily, sipping fuel and encouraging you to be thrifty, with the green monitor in the smart instrument display awarding you 'leaves' on your digital tree for consistent eco driving. Because of its prototype status, the official figures have not been cal-culated, but Honda's tests reveal that 50mpg is still perfectly possi-ble - no compromises on that front then.

But five minutes in Eco mode is enough to confirm that it still works; instead you need to punch the Mugen button and find out what it

Mugen button and the out what it really can do.
Honda had kindly laid on some track time at Rockingham Motor Speedway, and it was the perfect venue to explore its full capabilities.

Quickest

Although race circuits have a habit of masking the true performance of even the quickest cars, the response and the consistent acceleration of the CR-Z Mugen is a real pleasure.
The slick gearchange helps to keep the engine singing and it revs right around to 7,000rpm with ease. Perhaps even more impressive is the handling and grip, allowing it to swoop through bends ever more quickly and instilling huge confidence in the driver.

Add in the unshakable brakes that stood up to dozens of hot laps without complaint, and you have a remarkably entertaining package for a car with proper eco credentials.

So where's the catch? Well, the truth is you can't go and buy this car, yet.

truth is you can't go and buy this car, yet.

This prototype is a one-off, and because of all the development work that went into it, it is effectively worth £150,000.

And although Honda firmly says there are no plans for production, they added the caveat that they will listen to customer feedback before making any further steps.

That means it's down to you. If you like the idea of having a modern, stylish and innovative coupe that costs pennies to run but will still attack at twisty back road with glee, you need to get down to your Honda dealer and start badgering them relentlessly. relentlessly.

With a good deal of the parts available off the shelf, it would only take a reasonable amount of interest to make it a viable production reality.

Then even the eco-warriors would be able to raise a smile.

Local Company Expanding Nationwide

We Want Any Car's new fleet take to the road

We Want Any Car, established in 2009 at Cannock, Staffordshire, are expanding their online car buying company through-out England and Wales

Their new fleet of 30 vans can now be seen up and down the country, We Want Any Car have currently over 50 offices now open and aim to double this figure by the end of the year, offering excellent customer service, home visit and collection facilities

We Want Any Car have a simple, easy to use website, where customers enter their registration number to obtain a free valuation for their car and then select the nearest office to where they live for an appointment, 7 days a week.

Pictured above are just some of the Office Managers, collecting their brand new vehicles, who are nov part of the We Want Any Car group.

Area Manager Russell Greene, who is responsible for the London and M25 regions, is seen here handing over a new van to Malcolm Owen, Office Manager for Luton and Stevenage.

Operations Director Tim Clapham said: "With over 10 offices now open in the Midlands region and the amount of recommendations we were achieving, it only seemed natural to expand the business further afield. Many customers were travelling more than 80 miles to sell us their car, and so to cope with this demand new offices were opened. This in turn helps us promote our company and inform the public that there is an alternative in the car buying market.

We look forward to an exciting and busy year, with further expansions planned for 2012.

The Top Gear star with a juicy future

Jeremy Clarkson gave viewers a laugh on Top Gear, driving the world's tiniest production car, the quirky British hand-built Peel P50, to work – literally into his office?

This fun clip has gone down in history as the fifth greatest moment in the motoring programme – and arguably the funniest film Top Gear has ever made.
The video of the Peel P50's star performance has been rated top of the pops on the show's website by viewers from all over the world.

Resurrected

"It certainly was an unfor-gettable experience for all involved." said Faizal Khan of Peel Engineering, who, with his partner, Gary Hillman, resurrected the firm on the Isle of Man that origi-nally manufactured the novel little one-seater Peel cars.

Fiat 500 TwinAir is slick enough to handle city streets

Fiat recruits pair of twins

IT'S AN international award-winning engine, and TwinAir is set to become a version in its own right

TwinAir is set to become a version in its own right within the popular 500 city car line-up.

The TwinAir cars will attract new customers to the Fiat 500 with their sporty and assertive appearance, black alloy wheels, burnished metal effects, spoiler, chrome exhaust and sports seats.

Coming in two trim levels – TwinAir and TwinAir Plus – the new line-up is considered the perfect Fiat 500 in value for money and in engine technology.

The 0.9-litre TwinAir engine is the unit that best suits the 500. Its high torque at low revs and environmental credentials make the 500 a serious contender among rival city cars.

With 95g/km CO2 it is one of the few cars entitled to cross London without incurring the congestion charge.

London without incurring the congestion charge.

Convertible

The TwinAir range will come in 500 (hatchback) and 500C (convertible) versions and will be available in Pearlescent Red, Tropicalia Yellow and Electroclash Grey. Midnight Black is available only on the TwinAir Plus.

TwinAir specifications include: sporty looking mouldings and metallic effect dashboard, sport kit (chrome exhaust pipe, spoiler), sport seats, black interior surround, 15-inch matt black alloy wheels and air conditioning.

TwinAir Plus adds 16-inch matt black alloy wheels, automatic climate control instead of air conditioning, Blue&Me, sport leather steering wheel with eight commands, leather gear knob, dark tinted windows, body coloured door mirrors "TwinAir and TwinAir Plus will become the best offer for Fiat 500 customers," said Elena Bernardelli, marketing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK.

"The combination of lively performance, high equipment levels, great value for money and undoubted green credentials make the TwinAir range a wonderful proposition for Fiat 500 lovers everywhere."

The TwinAir starts at £11,600 OTR, rising to £12,700 for the TwinAir Plus.

not too late to escape in a modern volkswagen Cali-fornia camper van.

Several models are available immediately from the Van Centre network through the Volkswagen Assured Used pro-gramme. Current availability ranges from 2009 models to ex-demonstrator 2011 models with very low mileages.

The California is unique, as Volkswagen is the only auto-motive manufacturer to produce its own camper van, meaning it has the same high quality and durability standards meaning it has the same high quainty and our ability as its car and van ranges. It is car-like to drive and compact enough to use every day, yet quickly converts to a home from home with a luxury specification that includes a pop-up roof, kitchen, fridge, two double beds, heater, an outdoor table and two chairs (which neatly stow in the sliding side door and rear tailgate), and front seats that rotate to face the rear to create a lounge for four people.

Volkswagen Assured Used vehicles come with the peace of mind of a thorough multi-point inspection by fully trained Volkswagen mechanics, reconditioning to look and feel like new, history check, full valet and a year's Volkswagen Road-side Assistance.

Every Assured Used vehicle also has a comprehensive warranty of a minimum of 12 months, or the balance of the three year warranty from new, while vehicles over two years old also have MOT test cover which pays for the cost of any items needing repair or replacement for the vehicle to pass the test Simon Elliott, director, Volkswagen Commercial Vehicle said: "If you snap up an Assured Used California now you can enjoy a better lifestyle this summer and for many more to come."

Goodwood's tribute to the heroes of speed

in brilliant sunshine at Goodwood Festival of Speed, near Chichester over the weekend.

The annual celebration of motoring also attracted over 100 guest racing drivers and motorycle racers, including Sir Stirling Moss, Nigel Mansell, Jenson Button, Lewis Hamilton, Mark Webber and John Button, Lewis Hamilton, Mark Webber and John Surtees.

Current F1 racing and test drivers relaxed and enjoyed themselves. They thrilled the crowds by filling the air with unbelievable noises from "drag race" style starts in their extremely high-revving state-of-the-art machines, leaving trails of rubber on the road directly in front of Goodwood House, the home of host, Lord March.

The 50th anniversary of the E-Type Jaguar was highlighted by a giant 28-metre-high sculpture of the iconic car, situated on the lawn in front of the house, and historic examples of Jaguar competition cars from over the years were paraded up the course, which was totally lined with spectators.

Rally fans had their own designated forest stage where famous international drivers and cars from over the years including the MG Metro 6P4, Audi Quattro and Lancia Delta showed their pedigree, together with the current cop of World Rally Championship cars including the brand new four-wheel-drive Mini WRC.

Motorcycle enthusiasts were spoilt for choice with a wide range of historic Grand Prix racing machines and the latest competition superbikes being ridden up the track, most of the time "pulling wheelies" to impress the assembled masses and display just how much power and performance they now have.

Nissan Juke the whole length of the 1.16 miles course on two wheels.

The cricket pitch had been transformed into Goodwood's own motor show arena and the long-awaited Range Rover Evoque could be seen, that's if you could get anywhere near it on the Land Rover display stand.

For the lottery winners amongst the visitors, the Supercar Paddock displayed just about every conceivable exotic and prototype car, including the Bugatti Veyron (now ever so slightly old hat, I'm afraid, the Aston Martin One-77 and my personal choice, the outrageous Lamborghini Aventador, a possible for sports car of the year.

Another theme for the weekend was a tribute to the centenary of the Indianapolis 500 race from the USA, and a line of bricks had been inserted near the start line at Goodwood, as a tribute to the American venue known at The Brickyard.

More than 30 Indy cars representing champions of the past

More than 30 Indy cars representing champions of the past and present lined up along the track, a genuine American marching band had been brought over to perform and rock musician Jeff Kollman played the US national anthem through large speakers from the roof of Goodwood House. Although expensive to attend, the increasing spectator numbers antly prove that Goodwood provides a rare opportunity to see and hear famous racing machines from all over the world, dating back many years, and to get close to the stars of the action, indulge in a spot of people watching, all in a true festival atmosphere, while feeding the need for the sights and sounds of speed.

DAVE Bayliss had a pleasant surprise during a recent fishing trip to Blackfords Calf Heath surprise during a recent fishing trip to Blackfords Calf Heath Reservoir.

Using single castor as bait and fishing the margins with a 4m elasticated whip, he caught some nice roach and perch plus a bonus 11lb mirror carp that gave him a real scrap on such light tackle.

Some of the lakes larger carp have also been caught recently with a 17 & 18lb fish being reported.

The recent match on Leacroft Pool was won by Carl Strathfull with 15lb 602 of skimmer bream and roach, followed by Ken Walters and John Burns with 9lb 502 and 4lbs 202 respectively.

Lure anglers have been enjoying some good sport with pike and perch from around the local canals and lakes, fishing with surface poppers and small jelly lures pike to 18lbs have been caught as well as some 2lb plus perch.

News from other regional clubs include some nice catches from waters controlled by Burton Mutual Angling Angling Society. With the Rivers Dove and Trent producing some specimen size barbel and chub, anglers fishing the club's gravel pits have had some hefty bags of bream. Closer to home the local canal network is still fishing well with some stretches producing the odd double figure carp as well as some big chub.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Brereton Town u-10s ended a superb season as league runners-up, missing out on the title by a point. The team is now looking for players to add to the squad in readiness for 11-a-side. Players must be in Year 5. If interested call Steve Newton on 07894 762166 for details.

Following Brereton Town u-11's triumph in the Lichfield City tournament they have been rewarded with a new kit for next season. The new kit is proudly sponsored by the Ash Tree pub in Armitage Road.

At the Brownhils Community six-a-side tournament Chasetown Scholars entered two teams at under-11s level. Both teams played some excellent football and showed their capabilities early on in the group stages.

After four group games both teams qualified with the Scholars Whites finishing top of their group, and the Blues finishing runners-up. The Blues were unlucky in their quarterfinal, going out to a golden goal in the last minute of extra time.

The Whites progressed with a comfortable win into the semi-finals, where they played a team from the North Warvickshire League. A close encounter saw Chasetown progress with a 1-0 victory.

close encounter saw Chasetown progress with a 1-0 victory. In the final Chasetown came up against Silverdale from the Walsall League. Silverdale had been putting five or six past every team they had come up against in the group stages and knock out stages, but Chasetown gave them a run for their money.

Again yet another tight game was sepa rated by two pieces of brilliance from Sil verdale to take the trophy.

Tenth win on the spin puts Penkridge well clear at the top

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (53-1) BEAT BLOXWICH (52) BY NINE WICKETS

PENKRIDGE's current 1st XI continue to re-write the club's record books as they recorded their 10th win on the bounce on Saturday.

The 2007 squad which went unbeaten for the entire season managed to string together seven wins in succession, so Paul Szewczyk's men have eclipsed this record by some margin already.

The latest opposition to come unstuck against the Pillaton-based team were Bloxwich, who were demolished by an on-song old stager in the form of Gary Pope. He claimed superb, season-best figures of 6-19, and with Laeq Chise with three overs left on 290-6. Bloxwich recovered from losing Bloxwich were skittled for a mere 52 runs. Saleem Malik (19 not out) and Ronnie Hassan (28 not out) had the game wrapped up by 3.30pm for the loss of just one wicket, to open up a 41 point lead at the top of the Staffs Clubs Division 1.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (290-6) BEAT BLOXWICH (151) BY 139 RUNS

The second XI consolidated their position at the top of Division 1A with a set Cannock on their way to a large total before Wilkes was first man out, maximum 24 point haul against the same opposition. It was no surprise to his seroring 67. Connor Shingler (21) and Dan Bowker (24) made useful contributeam mates when skipper Rob Lawrence lost the toes again, meaning Penkridge tions while at the other end Traat passed 100 and was eventually out in the final over for an excellent 122. In reply Tamworth decided that chasing 261 was a step to far and so were content to play for the draw.

Dan Bowker (2 -22) and Ant Wood (2-10) gave Cannock some hope but the experienced stand in captain Gough (7 Ino) made sure that the game was safe for Tamworth. He was well backed up at the other end by Dick (30no).

With the game now at stalemate Tamworth's total was bolstered with 40 runs coming from the last four overs to finish on 162-4 in what was probably the game Cannock had seen all season. CANNOCK U15 (87 FOR 1) BEAT STAFFORD U15S (86-6) BY NINE WICKETS

Wootton (42), but once they were removed, wickets began to tumble quickly. Jon Price (3-38) returned for a second spell to claim the last two wickets as Bloxwich were bowled out for 151 in the 47th over.
